

SANCTIONS

Sanctions are required for all USAJRF Camps, Workshops, Open Tournaments, and Clinics.

I. Purpose of USAJRF Sanctioning:

The purpose of sanctioning USAJRF events is to ensure the quality of events that are governed by the USAJRF for all participants and coaches.

II. Sanctioning Guidelines:

- A. USAJRF must consider the assurances of Sanctions for these events, as defined in the USAJRF Sanctioning policies and procedures
- B. USAJRF Sanctions must be secured through the USAJRF Office for all Camps, Workshops, Open Tournaments, and Clinics.
- C. Any USAJRF adult member, who meets the following criteria, may make a request for Sanction:
 - 1. Is at least 18 years of age
 - 2. Is a current member of USAJRF
 - 3. Is in good standing with USAJRF
 - 4. Is certified to act as a director of event for which the Sanction request is made, if applicable.
- D. All rules and procedures must be followed as outlined by the USAJRF in accordance with the sanctioned event.
- E. A request for a Sanction Form must be completed and returned to the Office 60 days in advance of the Camp, Workshop, Open Tournament, or Clinic.
- F. The director who must be present for the event must sign the request for Sanction.
- G. The director whose name appears on the request for sanction must be present at the event.
- H. It is the responsibility of the event director to:
 - 1. Secure the facility to be used for the event.
 - 2. Assure that all USAJRF rules and policies are strictly adhered to.
 - 3. Secure all judges and personnel necessary to ensure the event meets all USAJRF standards and procedures.
- I. USAJRF will authorize only the accurate copying of the USAJRF Logo onto merchandise for resale at the event, for which a royalty of 15% of the gross sale price will be assessed and paid to the USAJRF Office after the final accounting procedure. This must occur no less than thirty (30) days following the sanctioned event.
- J. The event director must be knowledgeable of the USAJRF rules, policies, and procedures.

III. Sanction Fees:

- A. The USAJRF Board of Directors determines all Sanction fees.
- B. The Sanction fees for USAJRF events are as follows:
 - 1. All Workshops, Open Tournaments, and Clinics are Twenty-Five ($25.00) dollars.
 - 2. Camp is One Hundred ($100.00) dollars.
- C. All Sanction fees are non-refundable regardless of purpose of cancellation of the event.
- D. Make all Sanction fees payable to USAJRF.

IV. Violation of Sanctions:

- A. When an event director fails to adhere to the guidelines set forth by the USAJRF Sanctioned event, action may be taken against the director by USAJRF in the following manner:
 - 1. The director may lose the right to host a sanctioned event for a period of one (1) year or longer.
 - 2. The director may also lose his/her USAJRF Membership.
 - 3. The sanction for the event may also be revoked causing, in the event of sanctioned tournament; to invalidate all awards and places earned by participants.
