JUDGE AND VOLUNTEER UPDATE:

- It is very important that all coaches share the Judge and Volunteer Assignments with their team so that they will be prepared for their designated duties. And be sure to share any updates you receive accordingly.
- The deadline for submitting changes regarding the availability of your team's judges or volunteers has passed, if you have any late changes, please email to nationals@usajumprope.org ASAP.
- The Coaches and Judges Information Handbook will be sent to coaches by email and posted on the USAJR website. Coaches and Judges are responsible for downloading their own copy to bring with them to Nationals. One copy of this handbook will be provided to each team during Coach Check-In on Tuesday, June 19th.
- Coffee, tea and water stations will be available for our Judges and Volunteers. Bring your water bottles or travel coffee mugs if you would like to refill before going to your assigned stations.
- Boxed lunches will be provided daily for our Judges and Officials. They will consist of sandwiches, chips, fruit snacks, cookie and a drink. If you have ANY DIETARY restrictions or food allergies, please email USA Jump Rope by Thursday, June 14th at 12 pm CST. We will not be able to change the orders after that date.

MUSIC FOR GRAND NATIONAL FREESTYLES:

- Music is required for all freestyle events competed at Grand Nationals. The music must be appropriate for all audiences.
- Athletes who qualify for Grand Nationals freestyle events must deliver their music on a flash drive or submit via Dropbox to the Audio Technician during times announced in scheduled and prior to the start of the Grand National Tournament. Instructions for submitting to Dropbox will be included on the information sheet sent to coaches by email as well as included in the coach packet at check-in.
